Criticism of U. S. in Business Is Voiced by McLaughlin to Bankers

State Bankers in Convention Hear Their President Predict Return of Business to Private Management—(Alls Government Control Unwarranted.)

Upper Saranac, N. Y., June 11.—Increasing governmental interference with business was the theme of the address given at the annual convention of the New York State Bankers Association here this morning. In his address opening the convention, George W. McLaughlin, president of the association, told the convention that "the most important development since February, something which cannot be recorded in statistical indexes, is the increasing determination of business men to resume the management of their own affairs and to resist unwarranted governmental control thereof."

Hugh Knowlton, partner of the investment banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, New York city, another speaker, asserted that the banking world "is trying to advance in the midst of a barrage of restrictive Federal legislation unparalleled in the history of the country."

"The management of business under the economic system which has existed in this country since its original settlement has always shifted into the most competent hands," Mr. McLaughlin said. "Governmental penetration into business has been possible because private management was incapable of managing the problems created by the depression. For that failure, private business (including banking) has only itself to blame. Private enterprise will regain full control of business if and when it shows itself competent to handle it. And, as I have said, a tendency in that direction is already visible."

Public Control Limited. "It is becoming increasingly clear that public control and management of business has its limitations—unless we change our economic system, and I don't believe the American people are willing to pay the price of changing it. In the first place, the government must depend upon taxation for its subsistence, unless it engages in inflation, which at best is only a temporary expedient, and the collections depend upon the revenues of private enterprises. In other words, the government cannot not go on indefinitely regulating, controlling, managing, and engaging in business on an increasing scale, because to do so would eventually destroy its means of support."

Mr. Knowlton told the convention that the pressure put on commercial banks by the government to make capital loans is due to the fact that the investment banker is not permitted to function. If the government wants the long term as well as the short term needs of industry to be adequately financed, he said, "it must recognize that there are only two ways in which it can be done, either through the normal investment banking channels or with government funds."

Mr. Knowlton called the Securities Act of 1933 "the obstacle which the government has created to the only sound method of providing the capital financing which is essential if the country is to recover."

"This is the unhappy result," he added, "of a reformatory statute drawn by person who are able draftsman but inexperienced and unversed in the technical problems of the business which they are attempting to reform. I might add that they show an absence of inclination to become apprised of these practical considerations. The authors of this legislation (I am not referring to the congress itself but to those who drew the act) have indicated a lack of open-mindedness to the suggestions of experienced men trained in the tradition in investment banking firms bearing an honorable record of constructive accomplishment extending over many generations."

Theory Calls Them Gally. "The proponents of this legislation proceed on the theory that the members of the investment banking profession and their clientele, viz. the managements of corporate enterprises seeking long term financing, are to be presumed guilty of wrongdoing until they have proved themselves innocent."

"The result of this attitude is a statute which is thoroughly un-American in its concept."

Insurance of bank deposits was praised by Leo T. Crowley, chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, another speaker.

"It is reviving faith among depositors generally, and in so doing it is materially improving the banking structure of the nation. Through the insurance of deposits, it is felt that considerable advances have been made against the unrest to which, as I have already said, the New York banks are particularly sensitive. The confidence which the corporation has restored to depositors makes it possible for you to discard the defensive attitude which has so seriously hampered national recovery. Restoration of confidence allows the bankers of New York particularly to again draw new garments of 'aggressive leadership.' It is up to you, then, to try on these new robes and to assume the attitude of optimism which accompanies the purchase of new dress."

At the second session of the convention this evening, Mark Graves, state commissioner of taxation and finance, and Ronald Ransom, chairman of the national banking code with a banquet tomorrow night.

JOYFUL WEDDING PARTY MUST PUT SOFT PEDAL ON THEIR AUTO HORNS

Joyful wedding bells may still continue to peal forth, but a check will be placed on the tooting and blowing of sirens and horns on automobiles in Kingston. This edict has been issued in the form of an order to the motorcycle police of Kingston for so many complaints have been received by the police department from hospitals, sick patients and physicians in regard to the unnecessary noises that it has been determined to place a stop to it. Wedding parties gathered in an auto which is gaily decorated for the occasion and then step on the gas and drive through the streets of the city with horns wildly tooting to call attention of everyone to the fact that the couple in the car have just been married. Wedding parties are hereby warned in a friendly way that if caught in the act of unnecessarily tooting a horn or siren that they will be liable to be hauled up before the judge.

Beat Up Youth Who Gave Them a Ride

Arthur Elting and Woodrow Melville Fined $10 Each for Beating Up Joseph Schiskey of Hudson Street Early Sunday—Other Cases in Police Court.

Joseph Schiskey of Hudson street and two other young men who had been out at an amusement resort on Route 9-W on Saturday night decided to start for home early Sunday morning in Schiskey's car when they were accosted by Arthur Elting, 19, of 24 Van Buren street, and Woodrow Melville, 21, of 32 Stephan street, who asked for a lift home, say the young men. One of the boys with Schiskey said he knew one of the boys and that they were alright, and Schiskey told them to climb in the car.

After crossing the Roundout Creek Bridge Schiskey's two friends left him, leaving him alone with Elting and Melville, who demanded that Schiskey drive them uptown. He refused, saying his gas tank was low. Then it was that the alleged assault took place, one of the youths hauling Schiskey out of the car.

A resident of Spring street heard Schiskey groan when he was struck and thinking he was being killed called the police who hurried to the scene and arrested Elting and Melville on charges of third degree assault.

This morning in police court both Elting and Melville entered pleas of guilty to the charge and were fined $10 each by Judge Culliton. David Loff, 64, of Elmira, arrested for loitering about the streets and unable to give a satisfactory account of himself, was jailed for five days.

Jerry Johnson, an inmate at the City House, arrested for public intoxication on Broadway on Sunday, was given the opportunity to return to the home.

Kenneth G. Boss of 314 Hasbrouck avenue, arrested for parking his car in front of a fire hydrant on Wall street on Saturday, was fined $2.

Hamlet Scott, a negro, who said he lived in Poughkeepsie, was given five days in jail for panhandling on North Front street.

George Barnes, a negro of Norfolk, Va., and William Dwyer of Baltimore, were arrested Sunday; Barnes for being unable to give a satisfactory account of himself and Dwyer for panhandling. This morning they were both given suspended jail sentences provided they left town within the hour.

HITLER'S FRIEND BOUND FOR HARVARD REUNION Cologne, Germany, June 11 (AP).—Ernst F. Sedgwick Hanftaengl, taking French leave from Germany, was on his way today by train and airplane to the S. S. Europa and the 25th anniversary reunion of Harvard '09.

He left Cologne stowed away among the mail sacks on the air mail plane to Cherbourg. The plane ordinarily carries nothing but mail for the Europa and the Bremen, reaching them at the last European port.

Hitler's trusted lieutenant, whose desire to attend his Harvard University class reunion had various repercussions, decided impulsively yesterday that he would be on his way no matter what anyone thought, and he caught the mail-express train for Berlin to Cologne arriving just in time to board the mail plane.

San Salvador, El Salvador, June 11 (AP).—Via Pan-American Airways wireless)—Relief workers today estimated 2,000 persons were dead in the vicinity of San Salvador alone following last week's disastrous tornado and rainstorm.

The Salvadorean air corps yesterday sent up airplanes to survey the nation. They returned to report death and destruction everywhere.

L. C. Calloway, Pan-American Airways airport manager, went along as an observer and made an unofficial report of his findings.

He said the government planes dropped messages to all communities where life was still observed asking them to report in to the capital immediately as to the extent of casualties and loss in each village.

He saw evidences that whole towns had been destroyed by landslides started down volcanoes as the result of the rains.

In the Lempa river he saw the funnel of a river boat sticking out of the water and bodies floating around it.

The coast from La Libertad to La Union was worse hit and the villages there virtually destroyed.

The president of the republic has issued a decree that prices on foodstuffs must remain the same as before the disaster.

He abolished all import duties on wheat, rice and other cereals for the next three months in order that the people of El Salvador may be fed at as low a cost as possible.

Electric power was restored over the week-end in San Salvador.

The capital city is receiving drinking water again although it is only issued two hours daily.

The work of burying the dead is being carried on as fast as the army can get rescue workers into the stricken settlements.

Thus far, only the locality around the capital can be reported upon with any exactness, but the isolated villages are handling their own work of covering up the ravages of the 25-kilometer-24-hours' rainfall of last Wednesday.

The flying fields can be used again today and the government is depending completely on airplanes to establish contact with the outlying districts.

Lakes Guila and Coatepeque have risen far over their banks and swept away every vestige of civilization around their shores.

WANTED SMALL FAMILY QUADRUPLTS BORN TO HER

Sac City, June 11 (AP).—A 30-year-old mother who does not believe in large families is caring today for a quartet of new babies ranging in weight from two and a half to four and a half pounds.

She is Mrs. L. R. Wycoff of Sac City, who gave birth Saturday to quadruplets, boosting the family roster to nine.

Mrs. Wycoff was "very proud" but said she feels "very sorry" for her children because "they won't have the privileges they should."

Lawrence Wycoff, the father, works for the state highway commission for $16 a week.

"I don't know what to think about it all," he said, "but you bet your life I'm proud about it."

The babies all have the same initials—L. D. W. Their names and weights:

Lester Dean, 4½ pounds; and the three girls, Lavern Danene, 4 pounds; Lavonne Danene, 3½ pounds; and Lorraine Deaine, 2½ pounds.

Strike Conditions Unchanged Today As Peace Is Sought

Steel Industry Employees' Representatives Still adamant in Resistance to Johnson's Mediation Plan—Attacks Continue.

(By The Associated Press)

A week-end of negotiations left conditions on the far flung strike front of American labor practically unchanged today.

Representatives of steel industry employees were still adamant in their resistance to Recovery Administration plan for averting the nation wide steel industry strike scheduled for June 16 if steel companies refuse to recognize the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.

The sharp line of cleavage between conservative leaders and the militant rank and file insurgents of the Amalgamated was softened by Michael F. Tighe, president of the association, joined forces with the insurgents who last week waged verbal war with Johnson. Tighe's opposition is based partly on the impracticability of "finding men who would have utterly no interest in the steel industry" to serve on the board of mediation Johnson recommends as a means of settling the dispute.

Steel Workers Ready. From East Chicago came word that steel workers of the Calumet district are ready for the "holiday" next Saturday but hope that a strike may be averted. Their representatives last night voted a reaffirmation of the resolution calling for a "holiday" unless the steel companies agree to recognize the amalgamated union.

A conference of labor leaders in the steel industry has been called by Tighe to meet in Pittsburgh June 14, to determine strike action.

Steel masters discount the strike threat and point to "strong anti-strike sentiment" and opposition to "outside" unions as making the plans of the Amalgamated negligible.

Rumors of a plan for breaking the Pacific coast maritime workers' strike, now in its second month, were again heard as Federal Mediator Henry F. Grady flew to Washington to report a deadlock in peace negotiations. Police have increased their vigilance in Los Angeles following a waterfront battle in which five were injured. In San Francisco, Sheriff Claude G. Bannich disclosed that 500 extra deputies were ready for immediate duty.

Mine Fields Active. Gunfire and bombings which caused the injury of one person and endangered many others continued over the week-end in the strike ridden Alabama mine fields. Intermittent dynamite explosions Sunday were climaxed by a volley of shots fired by terrorists into the sleeping quarters of employees of the Republic Steel Corporation mine at Ralmond.

The New York strike of packing house employees, threatening to tie up the entire city's meat supply, was extended to include 12,000 more employees. About 3,000 meat workers have been out for a week.

Break Under Strain Of Long Waiting

Buffalo, N. Y., June 11 (AP).—Breaking under the strain of long waiting for word as to the fate of their husbands, the wives of three Buffalo passengers of the American Airlines plane today were confined to their homes under care of physicians.

All three, Mrs. Harold C. Coppins, Mrs. William A. Cass and Mrs. William B. Bader, up until late last night, spent practically all their time either at the Buffalo airport or by their telephones waiting for word as to the fate of their husbands.

Another relative of Coppins, George Jennings of Tucson, Arizona, a brother-in-law, spent Sunday afternoon and evening sitting by the Associated Press machine in a newspaper office waiting for some definite word.

"It doesn't look as if Harold and the rest will be found alive," he said as he left shortly before midnight.

Get Formal Call. Albany, N. Y., June 11 (AP).—Members of the New York State Senate today had Governor Lehman's formal call for a special session of the upper house for 2 p. m. Eastern daylight time, Tuesday, June 19, to act on the evidence gathered by the judiciary committee regarding Senator Warren T. Thayer's relations with the Associated Gas and Electric Company.

Thayer explained his resignation in a statement. It follows: "I am reliably informed that some of my associates in the senate feel that although there was no official misconduct on my part the vote cast by them to that effect would be construed by some of the constituents as a vote of approval of my attitude on power legislation and that this might be detrimental to their political future and to the political interests of the party in their district."

"I am also informed that they feel that in view of the fact that I have had a public hearing so that it is now a matter of common public knowledge that there was no corruption on my part and that I announced prior to the publication of the investigation that I would not be a candidate for re-nomination, and in view of the fact that both legislative sessions of my present term have been completed, I should tender my resignation to the senate at this time. This I have done in deference to them and for the purpose of avoiding any misunderstanding which might be, in any way, detrimental to the professional interests of my associates in the senatorial districts which they represent."

Missing Newark-Chicago Transport Plane Sighted, Burned Near Livingston Manor

Tugwell Defended Government Plans At Senate Hearing

Hearing Held in Connection With His Appointment to Post as Under Secretary of Agriculture at Salary Increase.

Washington, June 11 (AP).—Rev. Ford G. Tugwell determinedly defended administration efforts to have Congress strengthen the Agricultural Adjustment Act at a Senate hearing today, giving rise to dissension in the committee and disorder in the room.

Now assistant secretary of agriculture, he was being examined in connection with the President having nominated him to be under-secretary at an increase in salary from $7,500 to $10,000 a year.

Senators Smith and Byrd, South Carolina and Virginia Democrats, who have objected to the promotion, led the questioning. On hand was the biggest crowd at any Senate hearing of the year, largely composed of women.

Citing the controversial bill to amend the farm act, Byrd said Tugwell had misled the committee by saying they were merely "clarifying."

One of the amendments, he declared, would let the department say how many chickens could be raised. He asked if that were not an "enormous increase" in present A. A. powers.

Tugwell said he looked up the word "clarifying" and it meant to "make clear and free from obscurity."

"That is what the amendments are intended to do," he asserted. Remarks by Byrd led Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) to maintain that the investigation was being run as "a political racket." He charged the Virginian's criticism of the A. A. amendment bill as a "stump speech" and called for an orderly hearing.

"Hurrah for Byrd," had greeted Byrd as he concluded. Tugwell and Wheeler demanded such demonstrators be thrown out.

Order was restored by Chairman Smith.

Tugwell, a member of the original Roosevelt "brain trust" and a former Columbia University professor, affirmed his belief in the constitution. He added a conviction that it is "flexible enough to do what we believe necessary to meet exigencies of the past few years."

His reply was "no" when asked whether he believed in "national planning."

Roosevelt acts and policies, he said, have eliminated any danger of a revolutionary movement. He favored the sort of "economic planning" the president has spoken about, he said, but not the kind he mentioned in a 1931 speech by him that dealt with Soviet Russia.

"He's a conservative," remarked Senator Murphy (D. Iowa) to a conservative at that point.

Senator Thayer Resigns His Seat

Malone, N. Y., June 11 (AP).—State Senator Warren T. Thayer, Republican, representing Franklin and St. Lawrence counties, today resigned his seat, eight days before his colleagues were to vote upon his fitness to retain office because of relations with a public utility.

Senator Thayer, in announcing his resignation, declared that the formal relinquishment of the office he has held since 1929 was forwarded to the secretary of the state by George A. Moore, his counsel, who was attending the State Bankers Association convention at Upper Saranac today.

Thayer explained his resignation in a statement. It follows: "I am reliably informed that some of my associates in the senate feel that although there was no official misconduct on my part the vote cast by them to that effect would be construed by some of the constituents as a vote of approval of my attitude on power legislation and that this might be detrimental to their political future and to the political interests of the party in their district."

"I am also informed that they feel that in view of the fact that I have had a public hearing so that it is now a matter of common public knowledge that there was no corruption on my part and that I announced prior to the publication of the investigation that I would not be a candidate for re-nomination, and in view of the fact that both legislative sessions of my present term have been completed, I should tender my resignation to the senate at this time. This I have done in deference to them and for the purpose of avoiding any misunderstanding which might be, in any way, detrimental to the professional interests of my associates in the senatorial districts which they represent."

Wrecked Airliner Located in Clump of Woods Just Across Ulster County Line—Place Inaccessible, Troopers Proceeding on Foot—Journey Expected to Take Several Hours—Plane Down in Sparsely Populated Section.

FREEMAN STAFF WRITER FLIES TO COVER CRASH

Richard O. Gruver of Woodstock, a member of The Freeman editorial staff, today flew by plane from the Kingston Airport with Harper Molyneux, local pilot, to Livingston Manor to cover the airplane crash story for the Associated Press.

Ward said that the wrecked ship was located from an observation plane flying in a clump of woods just across the Ulster county line.

The place was inaccessible, Ward said making it necessary for the Troopers to proceed on foot four or five miles.

A group of troopers left for the scene at noon, eastern standard time, and Ward estimated that it would require two or three hours for the trip to the spot where the plane was reported sighted and return.

De Bruce is but five miles from Livingston Manor, and about ten miles from the place where the plane was reported sighted.

The spot where the plane was reported down is in one of the least populous counties of New York state, some 100 miles from New York city. It is some 20 miles from the Delaware river and 50 miles from the Hudson river.

The first report that the missing plane had been found was received at Newark airport. A canvass of a number of places in the rugged country brought no results for some time.

Finally, a searching plane sent out from Newark airport, on the strength of the first report, sent back word by wireless to the airport that the plane had been sighted burned.

Then Ward verified the reports from his club, his information coming from State Troopers who were using his establishment as temporary headquarters.

Corporal John Fordham, of Troop C, State Police, said that a volunteer pilot of the American Airlines reported to Sergeant Thomas Mangano, in charge of the State Police detail making the search near here, that the plane had been sighted.

Corporal Fordham said that Sergeant Mangano, with a detail of Troopers, had started immediately for the scene. He was accompanied by Pilot Hallock, the man who sighted the wreck.

He said that the searchers would have to travel afoot four miles through densely wooded territory, over doubtful trails and hazardous hills.

Not Reached by Ground. Newark, N. J., June 11 (AP).—The American Airlines plane, missing with seven occupants since Saturday night, was reported sighted this afternoon near Livingston Manor, N. Y.

Planes sent out by the Airline to check reports made by a private flyer reported back here by radio.

A large number of the group of 22 ships the line had out on the search since early this morning were ordered into the Livingston Manor area after a pilot named Hallock reported that he had seen the plane, which had been unreported since Saturday evening as it passed over Newark, N. Y., on its flight to Buffalo and Chicago.

Thodore Schmidt, division manager here, told reporters that the plane had not yet been reached by ground searching parties but that the description as radiated to Newark left no doubt that it was the lost 15-passenger twin-engine Condor.

The wreckage on the ground, according to Schmidt, showed the same number of motors and the same shaped fuselage.

The report also said that the four passengers, pilot and stewardess were inside the plane and had been killed.

Earl F. Ward, general superintendent of the company, controlling the liner, announced receipt of the report, saying it had come from a man named Hallock.

Ward placed the spot where the plane was reported found as south of Roscoe at a place called Monkaup Park. It was 15 miles north of Livingston Manor, he said.

Passengers Aboard. Ground crews were immediately dispatched to the scene.

The plane, when it left Newark Saturday enroute to Buffalo carried: Clyde Holbrook, 35, of Chicago, pilot; John Barron, Jr., 23, of Chicago, co-pilot; and Miss Margaret Huckleby, 28, of Chicago, stewardess, comprising the crew, and the following passengers:

Harry H. Hinsel, of New York; W. B. Bader, of 602 Colvin avenue, Buffalo, N. Y.; W. A. Cass, of 57 Woodbridge avenue, Buffalo, and H. C. Coppins, of 23 Middlesex Road, Buffalo.

A large fleet of planes had been enroute in the search yesterday and today, circling a wide area over the Catskill Mountain region of New York state, checking many reports

De Bruce, N. Y., June 11 (AP).—C. R. Ward, proprietor of the De Bruce Club where State Troopers are using as a base of operations, said today that the missing Newark-Chicago transport plane had been sighted, burned, three miles southeast of Monkaup Pond.

Ward said that the wrecked ship was located from an observation plane flying in a clump of woods just across the Ulster county line.

The place was inaccessible, Ward said making it necessary for the Troopers to proceed on foot four or five miles.

Church Service Of Young People

The young people and their children of the Church School of St. John's Church, Walter T. Fraser, superintendent, had the church service on Sunday morning, June 10, at 10 o'clock, the Rev. W. P. Fraser, who is out of town.

The steps and front of the church as well as the altar were decorated with June flowers.

After the Prayers and the opening of the service by Mr. Fraser, the choir sang "The Lord is the Father of the Fatherless."

Frederick Holcomb made the announcements as to the children who were taking part in the service.

The first lesson was read by William Fraser, the second by William Fraser. Hymns were sung in the place of the usual choir and canticles. Mr. Williams played the organ as always.

There were appropriate Bible verses, recitations and songs by individuals and groups of the primary department.

The address which took the place of a sermon, was delivered by William Fraser, Jr., whose subject was "The Purpose of the Sunday School." The young speaker opened his address by saying "The purpose of this Sunday School is to make friendships. We form a friendly friendship with God, a motherly friendship with the church and a brotherly friendship with our fellow pupils."

Mrs. Fraser told of learning the ways of developing such friendships in the Sunday School, by studying the Bible, where in the New Testament we would find Christ whom we want as our best friend, who is kind, who is kind and rank and slept and was eager for human companionship.

Finally those who attended Sunday or church school appreciated it when their teachers helped them to meet their problems in life, which, young as they were, they all had, said the speaker. The lives of the pupils and teachers in the Sunday school should make for a better and more Christian school.

Announcements for the coming week were made by Mr. Fraser, as follows: There will be no celebration of the Holy Communion this Thursday or next, as the rector has gone to attend the graduation from Hobart College of his son, and will while away visit his family in Wisconsin. On June 17 the Rev. Dr. Watkins will be the preacher and will have charge of the service.

The Church Thrift Sale will begin on Thursday, June 14, at 7:30 Broadway. Those having articles to contribute are asked to communicate at once with Mrs. Babcock, telephone 487.

The Men's Club will meet on Friday evening, June 22nd, at 8 o'clock.

The Society Islands.
The Society Islands are a group of high volcanic islands in the second of the eastern Polynesian chains in the South Pacific. They are located between 16 degrees and 18 degrees south latitude and 148 degrees and 155 degrees west longitude, with a total area of 657 square miles, and belong to France. The archipelago is a double group, separated by a clear channel of 60 miles in breadth; the northwest or leeward group including the island of Raiatea and the southeast or windward group centered about the famous island of Tahiti, 600 square miles, on which is Papeete, population 5,000, the capital of French Oceania.

Tercentennial of the First Passion Play

THREE hundred years ago, in 1634, the pious peasants of Oberammergau, a little village in the Bavarian Alps of southern Germany, gave the first presentation of the Passion Play. This was the fulfillment of a vow made the previous year for relief from the plague that had devastated Europe following the Thirty Years war. For three centuries the folk of Oberammergau have kept the vow and the performance this summer marks the tercentennial of the play. Oberammergau is prepared to take care of a great throng.

Olive Rebekah's Birthday Party

West Shokan, June 11—With a fitting and highly pleasing program Olive Rebekah Lodge celebrated its 4th birthday anniversary Thursday evening, June 7, at the Olive Bridge I. O. O. F. lodge hall. About 60 members were present which included visiting delegates from several other lodges about the county. Eight in a group from Agape Lodge of Bearsville including the Noble Grand represented the mother lodge.

The meeting was presided over by Noble Grand Francis Ayers and vice Grand Lena Burgher. The room was attractively decorated with baskets of mountain laurel and other wild flowers of early summer.

During the business session a pleasing report of the recent assembly session held at Niagara Falls was given by the attending representative, Past Noble Grand Mabel Weidner.

The program of entertainment, "Review of the Months," was given during an intermission. Arthur E. Trowbridge, past I. O. O. F. district deputy, presided amiably as master of ceremonies. Each of the entertainers was dressed appropriately to their various seasons' representation. January was represented by Elmer Fawcner, who appeared in a trim brown suit and hat, reciting eloquently as a poem, "Snow Bound."

FASHIONS By ELEANOR GUNN

Still Following the Fleet

Copyright, 1934, by Fairchild.

At the left a youthful box jacket is shown in natural linen with carved wooden buttons. It is stitched around the edge of the collar and cuffs for a trimline.

The middle is shown in navy linen with a stiff acetate ribbed fabric used for the collar. The braid and star repeat the navy.

Petticoat Rule

Paris—The question of petticoats is up again, because of the sheerness of so many of the summer dresses, done in nets, organdies, or embroidered laces. Worth, who showed finely pleated flesh colored chifon versions under black dresses in February, is now offering crisp lingerie petticoats, with lace trimmed bordered frills, under summer frocks.

An Old Spanish Costume

New York—The tricorne has a romantic quality which endears it to many women. Coupled with the fact that it is generally becoming, it crops up repeatedly every season or so, whether it is one of the leading silhouettes or just an also ran.

Has developed by an important milliner in New York take cognizance of the tricorne, inspired by the fact that Goya paintings have extended some influence in developing hats which reflect the Spanish character.

Blue—The Friendliest of Colors

New York—The first thing every girl learns after she has mastered the rudiments of the three R's is that navy blue is a girl's best friend, next, of course, to her mother. And that lesson, ground into her early in life, remains to the end of her days. But she learns that tradition has linked navy blue with spring, and when liberally served with white it spells summer and the sea.

We've had navy springs before and without a shadow of a doubt will have them more, but there couldn't ever be a spring or early summer in which blue was more liberally applied for background, foreground, shadows and highlights. It takes all kinds of blues to make a summer.

Just by way of variety here is a costume which is true blue and scornful of dramatic contrasts of either color of fabric. It skillfully avoids being hot and heavy looking by being sheer. It has pleats by way of interest and to soften both the line and the surface.

More than a hint has already been given you of the growing favor accorded plain colors. Not that there are not many new and exciting-looking prints, some quite Oriental in character. But that every woman isn't constantly wearing prints is in itself news.

There are enough monotone costumes and costumes of color contrasts in their construction rather than in the pattern, to make the fact seem darkly significant.

Another interesting conclusion we have reached after attending smartly patronized race meets, is that black footwear has taken a step backward in order that blue should go marching on. Any number of good looking blue shoes are stepping out these days.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

The most important observation affecting all shoes is that the lower heel is taking a good hold on the smart woman's selection of daytime shoes.

Navy cotton with tier white patterns is adopted for shorts or trousers in Mainbocher sports group.

Cool tucked chifon in navy blue has sleeves with darts returned to give fullness, while the skirt reverses the direction of the tucks in a source effect. The neckline trimming and belt are of navy corded lattice work, with white beads finishing the fringe at the neckline, and trimming the front of the belt and fringe in back.

PLEASING TRIO RECITAL AT KNAUTH HOME.

An exceptionally pleasing recital, given by three young musicians, pupils of Mrs. Florence Cuhberry, at the home of Mrs. Antonio Knauth on Albany avenue, occurred on Sunday afternoon.

The players were Violet and Eva Dunbar, violinists, and James Dunbar, cellist, grandchildren of Mrs. Knauth. The youthful musicians played with the confidence gained from right training and careful practice and the pleasure in what they were doing.

Their program opened with the playing of Trio No. 1 by Klengel, in two movements, Allegro and Rondo. Eva was the violinist, Violet played the piano part and James the cello. With smoothness, and sweet, true tones, the trio played two movements remarkably well and greatly to the enjoyment of their friends who were also the guests of Mrs. Knauth.

Little Miss Eva then played two violin solos, Pastorale by Sitt and Guitar by Reinecke, accompanied by her teacher, Mrs. Cuhberry, at the piano. The little violinist showed that she had a love of her instrument and the music in her playing of these solos. The second one was unusual in that the bow was not used, the entire composition being pizzicato, that is the strings plucked with the fingers.

The two sisters also played a duet by Pleyel. The guests all greatly enjoyed Mrs. Dunbar's singing of "Selve Amiche" by Caldara and "A June Morning" by Willby. She was accompanied by Harry Elmendorf.

Violet as the soloist was accompanied by Mr. Elmendorf at the piano. Meeting many technical difficulties admirably and with ease of bowing and full tone she played "Slavonic Cradle Song" by Neruda and Gavotte by Popper, written for the cello, but especially arranged for the violin.

The afternoon's music came all too soon to an end with the final Trio No. 2, by Pleyel, played remarkably well by Violet Dunbar.

Control For Mexican Bean Beetle Pest

For many years the Mexican bean beetle has been a serious pest in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains from the state of Wyoming southward into Mexico. During recent years it has spread to New York state and has been a serious pest to practically every bean patch for two or three years.

The Mexican bean beetle passes the winter in the adult form often at a considerable distance from the bean field. The beetle is about 1-3 inch in length, oval in outline, strongly convex above, and pale yellowish to brownish in color. The most distinctive markings are the eight small black spots on each wing cover, arranged in three transverse rows. It is now appearing in Ulster county and the adults immediately start laying eggs on the undersides of the leaves. The adults and the young, which hatch out in six days to two weeks, feed on the leaves. In severe cases only the upper epidermis and the veins of the leaves are left. The larvae or young mature in three to five weeks. Two generations usually develop each season.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

The Last Laugh

Boston—A brown leather purse was on the ground. Nearby stood a group of young fellows who snickered audibly each time somebody was about to pick it. The passerby, embarrassed, walked on. Just a hoax, thought they.

Finally a woman picked up the purse—and how the youths did laugh.

"I dropped it a little while ago," she said as she examined a roll of bills inside. "I'm glad people are so honest nowadays."

The youths did not laugh.

Beware the Brown Bachelor

Walla Walla, Wash.—It's rough on the black widow when the brown bachelor gets his clutches on her—speaking of spiders.

A large brown spider, termed the "brown bachelor," was caught and placed in a jar with six or eight of the widows. Someone tipped the jar upside down.

The widows clung to their webs.

SEEKS DROUTH RELIEF AID FOR THE ENTIRE STATE

Utah, N. Y., June 8. Possibility that all counties in New York state may benefit from the indefinite time limit on applications for emergency crop loans has been announced by L. R. Simons, director of extension at the state college of agriculture and home economics.

In communication with agricultural officials at Washington, Director Simons pointed to the need for relief in counties other than the nineteen counties designated as drought-stricken.

The time limit expired May 31, but was extended until further notice for the following counties designated as drought-stricken: Jefferson, Oswego, Steuben, Essex, St. Lawrence, Cattaraugus, Washington, Otsego, Lewis, Allegany, Saratoga, Schoenectady, Franklin, Tompkins, Clinton, Albany, Herkimer, Chemung, and Montgomery.

Efforts were made, Director Simons says, to have the whole state eligible to share in the emergency loans, and the outlook now is optimistic.

Loans are made to farmers who have no other source of credit to purchase feed, fertilizer, and sprays. The minimum is ten dollars and the maximum, $250.

C. Bert Smith of Rochester is state supervisor of emergency crop loans.

A Washington Daybook

By HERBERT PLUMMER

WASHINGTON—One would have to be possessed of a vivid imagination to say that Harry Long of Louisiana took along the same lines as President Roosevelt on a public question.

Yet, Mr. Roosevelt probably couldn't have told the senate better just why he wanted authority to negotiate reciprocal tariff agreements with foreign countries than Harry told at one time during debate on the measure.

The "kingfish" was telling stories out of school, but what he said lies at the bottom of the whole thing.

"I'll tell you how we got a tariff on copper last time," he said. "We got it because several other senators and myself went around here swapping enough votes to get it. We couldn't get the tariff with oil and copper and coal by themselves, so we put in lumber in order to get a few more votes. There's no need of whipping the devil around the stump."

It was because the President knew about tariff "whipping" that he asked for authority to do the job himself.

Robinson's Idea

SENATOR Robinson of Indiana is about the only leading republican who has put his opinion on record as to the type of man that should be selected as chairman of the G. O. P. national committee in Chicago, June 5.

Others have been rather cagey in their comments on the sort of man to fill Everett Sanders' shoes, but not "Lil' Arthur," who is up for reelection this year.

He inserted in the Record recently an article outlining the qualifications the best chairman should have.

It would be should be "factual in statement," "entrenched in the confidence of business men and wise in the party's needs" and should possess those "outstanding qualities of character and traits of character which inspire courage, inspire confidence, elevate and dignify honesty of purpose in espousing a cause in the interests of the common weal."

The Record doesn't show that he has any particular candidate in mind who measures up to these ideals.

'Builders' Booming

REPUBLICAN politicians have had their attention drawn recently to an organization in New York labeled "Republican Builders."

They hadn't heard much about it when in Washington until James Watson, member of the house from New York, and Ogden Mills, former secretary of the treasury, appeared before the organization the other day to speak at the formal celebration of the founding of the "Builders."

Reports have it that the two men most prominently mentioned in connection with G. O. P. presidential hopes in '36 were amazed at the spirit and enthusiasm they encountered there.

The organization, composed of some other republicans but mostly newcomers on the political scene, started in New York and has branched out into New Jersey and Rhode Island.

Plans are to extend the organization into all the states.

Experience of Camel Smokers Confirmed!

In New York a famous research laboratory announces a basic discovery that throws new light on our past knowledge of cigarettes. It embodies an "energizing effect." Through it the flow of your natural energy is restored in a harmless...utterly delightful manner. Fatigue and irritability quickly fade away. Thus an experience long known to Camel smokers has received new scientific confirmation. You do "get a lift with a Camel," and it is a pleasure that you can repeat as often as needed—all day long. For Camels never get on your nerves.

Feel Played Out? Let CAMELS increase Your Flow of Energy

Are you irritable...cross and fussy when tired? Then light a Camel. As you enjoy its cool, rich flavor...notice how quickly you feel your flow of natural energy restored.

This fact is known to many through their own experience. How that "done-in" feeling drops away. How your natural pep and energy come flooding back and you are again able to face the "next move" with a smile!

NATURAL ENERGY IS RELEASED

The effect is produced by Camels

in a wholly safe, natural, and utterly delightful way.

So, whenever you feel run-down, tired and irritable, just light a Camel. Enjoy its fragrance to the full—let your flow of energy swing back—and you are your real self again!

NO NERVE IRRITATION WITH CAMELS

You can smoke just as many Camels as you want—and it's a pleasure that actually helps you to maintain your energy.

And the finer, more expensive tobaccos in Camels never get on your nerves!

TIRED FROM SHOPPING...and then she smoked a Camel!

CAMEL'S
Costlier Tobaccos
never get on your Nerves

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

WATCH OUT for weariness and irritability that come from a low level of energy. Smoke a Camel for a quick comeback in the flow of natural, healthful energy...as frequently as you wish. You will feel like your real self again, and you'll like Camels—a matchless blend of costlier tobaccos!

Union Hose Receives Its New Fire Truck

Only Ceremony Marks Occasion as City Officials and Those Prominent in Firemen's Circle Attend.

Saturday evening proved a gala one for the residents of Ponckhockie, the occasion being the delivery and putting into service of a new Sanford fire truck at the engine house of Union Hose Company, No. 4.

Assembling at the Central Fire Station at about 8 o'clock, the members of the company in uniform and a number of invited guests, formed in line, headed by the fire commissioners and Chief Murphy, with Executive Hose Band, the company with its handsome silk banner, proceeded down Broadway to the Strand and then on to Ponckhockie.

On arriving at Ponckhockie, the members were met by the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, who fell in line and marched the remainder of the distance to the engine house on East Union street. With the men, women and children carrying red fire, the fire of the police escort, fire chief's car and the new truck announcing their approach, the residents of that section turned out en masse to rejoice with the firemen. After the arrival at the fire house

HERE, John Biggs, IS WHAT TO DO FOR YOUR Headaches!

Dr. B. — * tells Mr. Biggs, traffic officer, of New York, N.Y.

If you are made miserable by those "sick" headaches... follow the advice of Dr. B. — * Get positive relief more quickly by removing the real cause!

Those nagging "sick" headaches of yours—nine times out of ten, doctors have learned, are due to just one cause... Your intestines are clogged with poisonous wastes!

These accumulated wastes, according to Dr. B. — *, exert pressure on the intestinal nerves, thus causing your headaches. Also they generate poisons that the blood stream picks up and carries to all parts of your body—making you feel "half sick," listless, out-of-sorts.

You must rid the system of these poisonous wastes! And for nearly forty years, doctors have prescribed Sal Hepatica as the safe, sure way to do this. For Sal Hepatica is utterly different from other types of laxatives in four vital respects:—

Why Sal Hepatica is Different—More Efficient

1. It is a Mineral Salt Laxative that not only flushes the system clear of poisonous wastes, but tends to aid Nature in restoring the natural balance of body fluids.
2. Its action results from osmosis (a gentle, thorough flushing) and not from irritation.
3. It acts promptly. No hours of waiting.
4. No "dragged-out" feeling afterwards—because Sal Hepatica does not deplete the body tissues of fluid.

So take Sal Hepatica at the first sign of clogged intestines. And thus aid Nature to keep you free from colds, grippe, rheumatic pains, upset stomach and other common troubles.

Olin Dutra Is New Open Golf Champ, Title May Be Worth $25,000 To Him

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

New York, June 11 (AP)—Only two years after making his first big challenge for America's premier golfing honors, Olin Dutra, the elusive Californian, holds the open golf championship of the United States, which with the conspicuous uptrend in today's sporting business may well be worth $25,000 to him before he has to defend it in 1935.

Dutra came east in 1932 with a great record, hailed as a coming champion. Simultaneously stocky Gene Sarazen came back from England with the British open crown. Twin favorites in the United States open that year at Fresh Meadow, Dutra paced the field for one round, but Sarazen came from behind with a glorious finishing 66, on the last 18 holes, and won the tournament with the record-equaling score of 235. Dutra finished seventh.

Tables Abruptly Turned
Saturday, over the magnificent east course of the Merion Cricket Club, which completely jolted the over-confidence of the professional leaders, the tables were abruptly turned.

Starting the last round of the 72-hole battle, Sarazen was out in front, worrying not about Dutra, but about a pair of veterans ahead of him, Bobby Cruikshank and Wiffy Cox.

While this trio blundered down the stretch, the swarthy California Spaniard came galloping from behind to pass all three and snatch the victor's gold and glory. This time, Sarazen was the runner-up.

Exciting Finish
The final totals were Dutra 233, Sarazen 234, Cooper Cruikshank and Cox 295 each. It was the closest and most exciting finish since Big Ted Ray of England won by a stroke at Inverness in 1920, with four rivals tied for second. Two other veterans, MacDonald Smith of Nashville and Bill Burke of Cleveland, were in another tie for sixth place at 295.

Dutra's victory not only was a surprise to all, but he was not even

The Clintonian baseball team will hold practice at Pan-Am Field tonight at 6:30. Those with cars will call at Clinton Avenue M. E. Church at 6:15 to take those who have no cars. All players requested to be on hand as the first game for them in the Industrial League will be played on Friday with the Minutian Frutiers at the Athletic Field.

This sporting life keeps rolling along. One act leads straight into another.

As the Open Golf Championship bows out, the crowd at large turns to the heavyweight title battle between Primo Carnera and Max Baer on Thursday in Madison Square Garden's Long Island Bowl.

And two days after this party is over Bill Bonthron of Princeton and Glenn Cunningham of Kansas settle the long disputed mile leadership of the United States.

This will also be a show worth looking at. But the big spot is the Carnera-Baer meeting. It has all the old elements and a number of new ones.

It has the better boxer meeting the harder puncher and the more durable opponent.

That is old stuff. But in this case the better boxer is much the bigger man—and the harder puncher and the more durable type will be outweighed by 50 pounds.

That is the new kick. Strangely enough, Dempsey was much the harder puncher when he met Willard, who outweighed him by some 70 pounds.

But Dempsey then was also much the faster man—much the better boxer. Carnera is faster than Baer, which is an unusual turn with 50 extra pounds to lug about the ring.

The Crowd and the Gate.
With all the elements of drama involved, the latest guesses are that more than 50,000 spectators will pay around $600,000 to see this fight. The Rose-McLarnia attendance total was under 40,000, but the heavyweights always carry the lure. The populace likes to see a giant totter and fall.

It is hardly conceivable that Carnera will knock Baer out, although he may outpoint him. But Baer has the punch to knock out Carnera if he can only park one of his massive fists on the right spot. It is the possibility or the probability of Baer's upsetting 260 pounds of human flesh that is drawing out a large bulk of the crowd. If neither was a puncher the fight wouldn't gross $200,000. The populace still likes to see and hear the Old Wham as it reaches a vulnerable spot. There isn't much time left now for any further conditioning. Carnera has been ready for some time. Baer has barely made the grade—but he has come a long way in the last two weeks. (Copyright, 1934, by GRANTLAND RICE.)

Giants Continue Slugging, Mel Ott Hits His 15th Homer

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

In their latest effort to the head of the National League standing, the New York Giants, "hittest" champions of 1933, have turned into a bunch of high-powered sluggers. In the course of winning 12 out of 15 games, the Giants have touched the ten-run mark nine times, reaching a climax yesterday when they battered the Phillies for 26 blows and an 15 to 7 victory.

The biggest blow of the slugfest was Mel Ott's fifth home run in four days and his 15th of the season. It gave him a tie with Lou Gehrig of the Yankees and Zeke Bonura of the White Sox for the major league lead. The Giants suffered one setback for southpaw Carl Hubbell was forced out in the fifth when he hurt his hand trying to field Al Todd's hit and may be absent a week or more.

The victory didn't increase the Giants' lead as the second-place Cardinals came through with a 3 to 2 triumph over Pittsburgh. The Cubs, in third, came back to beat Cincinnati 7 to 4 after dropping two straight to the tailenders.

Brooklyn's "Daffiness Boys" lived up to their reputation in the fourth National League game by dropping a 10-8 decision to the Braves with two errors in the eleventh inning after they had overcome a five-run deficit to tie the score.

The American League leaders tightened up their race again when Detroit's pace-setting Tigers ran into a 3-1 setback at Chicago's hands and the second-place Yankees smashed out a 7 to 3 decision over the Athletics.

Boston's new brother battery of Wes and Rick Ferrell turned in its first full game with Wesley doing most of the work in a 4 to 3 triumph over Washington. He granted only eight hits and drove in the winning run in the ninth. The Sox again moved into a fifth-place tie with the losers.

Cleveland broke a virtual tie for

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN BE 3 TIMES SAFER FROM BLOW-OUTS ...and get months of extra tire mileage FREE

A BLOW-OUT strikes like greased lightning. BANG! You don't have time to steer. And when you stop it's usually too late. Of course, you may escape injury. But if a tree trunk or a truck gets in your way—well, it's just too bad.

At speeds of 50 or more, on today's small wheels, the tire often gets as hot as boiling water. When tires get hot the rubber walls ... become weak. The rubber in the outer ply breaks down—loses its grip on the tread. A blister begins to form inside the tire—and grows until BANG! A blow-out!

To protect you, every new Goodrich Silvertown has the amazing new Life-Saver Golden Ply. This invention resists heat—rubber and fabric don't separate. Thus blisters don't form inside the tire. The great, unseen cause of blow-outs is eliminated before it begins.

Racing daredevils tested out the Golden Ply at breakneck speeds.

On the world's fastest track. Not one blow-out. Similar tires without the Golden Ply failed at one-third the distance the Golden Ply Silvertowns were run. And what's more, the big, rugged Silvertowns kept right on eating up the miles.

No extra cost!
Why take chances when you can be 3 times safer from blow-outs at high speeds—and get months of extra mileage—at no extra cost! Get a set of Goodrich Silvertowns before it's too late.

All Stars Reorganize And Trip Wappingers Falls, 2-1

Reorganized by Jack Robbins, one of the best known catchers ever turned out by Kingston and once manager of the old Colonials, the Kingston All Stars played Sunday at Wappingers Falls, tripping the club from that community, 2-1, as Jimmy "Babe" Voelker pitched a three hit game. Robbins, himself, was behind the bat.

The clubs are scheduled to play a return game next Sunday on the same diamond.

Spotting Voelker was Garner, who was touched for six hits, the clouts being registered by J. Moore, Davitt, T. Tiano, Cragan, D. Moore and Robbins. Tiano's and Cragan's hits were out for two sacks.

The Wappingers diamond men were able to score, getting their lone run in the opening game. It was scored by Bill Shay, who formerly played with the Kingston Colonials. Ransome's runs were scored in the third inning. Bob Slicker making two and Tiano the other.
